Procedure for obtaining Temporary Approval.

1. Details of shipment need to update in customs system online through client's login ID.
<https://www.ecustoms.gov.qa/qccsw/jsf/account/ExternalEIDInput.jsf#>
Click on create. Enter details as per requirement. (Note: If HS Code is showing "Others", do not update same HS Code.. please take nearby HS Code with consultation from clearing agent.)
After all details filled up submit and a T/I application number will be generated. Print the same.
2. Once Temporary approval request number generated then Application need to submit at main customs office along copy of documents and pictures of cargo.
Documents to be submitted.....
 - a. Application letter (main Customs and Seaport Customs separate set)
 - b. Temporary Import Form with details, Cnee stamp and signature.
 - c. Copies of B/L, Commercial Inv., PL, COO.
 - d. Contract Copy, CR, Computer Card, ID copies
 - e. Pictures of cargo and serial number
3. A couple of days later need to follow up at main customs for approval. Once approval received from main customs then need to send Approval letter along with other set of document to Seaport customs office for verification and approval. If all ok seaport customs will approve online.
4. In case of breakbulk 10-12 days prior to arrival of shipment, Bayan need to prepare. In case of containerized cargo bayan can be prepared after DO collection.
5. Once bayan prepared then same need to verify at seaport customs and if all ok then proceed with Legalization and customs handling charges payment online. And Customs Duty payment also can be done online for less value. (other option for Custom Duty payment is Bank Guarantee and banker's cheque (DRAFT))
6. Once Seaport customs give final approval, Customs clearance can be proceeded along with port formalities once shipment arrives.
